

Recent Engagements

We have partnered at the CEO, senior management or SVP level in the following recent engagements:

- ◆ A global IT and business process solutions company undertaking to triple the size of its most profitable business line
- ◆ One of the largest US independent power producers investing in strong relationships between its management team and the board
- ◆ A leading North American chemicals company intent on quickly and effectively integrating a major Canadian acquisition
- ◆ One of the world's largest communications network services providers focused on building bench strength and capacity during a period of rapid growth
- ◆ An internationally-known management consulting firm ensuring that senior leadership remains at the cutting edge
- ◆ A highly-respected European finance firm building a high performance HR department that adds competitive business value
- ◆ One of the world's largest energy companies exploring an analytical center of excellence to gain a competitive edge
- ◆ A US mega-law firm which undertook a reorganization that strengthened its position in a highly competitive market
- ◆ One of the oldest and most elite US prep schools building a strong management team to ensure its sustained success

We respect the confidentiality of the individual executives with whom we work, but many are happy to share their experiences with prospective clients upon request.